Pennsylvania's Use of Global Products

- Fusion center products
- Service level agreement
- Service identification and guidelines
- Service specification packaging

Purpose of GIST?

- Connect implementers with a full set of the applicable Global products

Global Outreach Working Group Challenges

- Limited resources for Global outreach efforts
- Global is not always connected to all efforts
- Difficult for implementers to discover Global products, training, T/A, services and tools

Benefits of Using the GIST

- Avoid duplication
- Kick start your project or program
- Product interoperability
- Manage your bottom line

Global Has Your Solutions to Justice Information Sharing Questions

Whether you are tackling a justice information sharing business problem, targeting a general area of interest, or are looking for a specific Global publication, the Global Wizard has the solution. This tool is designed to give you, the user, options for locating the best solutions. From developing a privacy policy to establishing a fusion center; from guidance on first amendment rights to how to implement Global Reference Architecture standards, Global has your solution!

Based on your navigational preference, there are three different ways to locate the Global solutions that best meet your needs:

Search

Search

View and search the entire GLOBAL Product Family.

- A wide-open approach to search for products by keyword, phrase or document title.
- Filter by selecting individual or combinations of filters.
- Dive-in to products by viewing detail information and related products.

Browse

Browse

Navigate an extensive classification hierarchy to find the group of products just for you.

- Discover category detail and meaning.
- Move back and forth through the classification similar to using a directory.
- Leverage classification relationships to further product analysis.
- Dive-in to products by viewing detail information and related products.

Guide

Guide

The highest level of support, this process results in a customized package of Global Solutions that best meet your business need or interest based on responses to a series of guided questions.

- Filters through the entire set of Global products to create your individualized toolkit.
- Returns a result set of products tailored to specific needs
- Eliminates lengthy trial and error searching
- Suggests complimentary products
